[並べ替え](kanji / bear / Japanese, / “kuma”(熊), / the character / meaning / selected / for 2025 / in / was / as / of / the year), the Japan Kanji Aptitude Testing Foundation announced Friday, after a year defined by surge in bear encounters and nationwide unease amid a string of attacks.

“Kuma” received 23,346 votes, 12.3% of the total cast by the public. Japan saw record-high injuries and fatalities from bear attacks in 2025, along with repeated sightings in urban and residential areas. [和訳] The encounters fueled public anxiety, forced the cancellation of events and the closure of schools, and caused extensive damage to crops in rural communities, straining local economies.
